

Rosanna Evans is a wife and mother who concurrently works as an off-site medical transcriptionist and a call centre person at a funeral home. She lives in Calgary, Alberta, Canada with Bill, her husband of almost 25 years, and their son, Bill Jr.; their daughter, Tabitha and her husband, Brad, live close by. Rosanna received her BAR as a Biblical Scholar in 2001 from Rocky Mountain Bible College in Calgary and is currently working on her Master's of Divinity degree through Trinity School of Apologetics via distance education.